

Marcela HAVRILOVÁ

Microsoft

Marcela Havrilova currently works as a director for education at Microsoft Czech Republic and Slovakia. She is responsible for business activities and the fulfillment of the company's strategy in the field of education, as well as the support and implementation of projects aimed at the digital transformation of schools. She works actively as a member of several working groups, presents at many conferences. He has been working in the field of education and education his whole professional life. He also deals with personal and professional development of leaders, developing their potential and issues of organizational transformation.

Its goal is to bring new projects aimed at the effective use of new technologies in education, to participate in the fulfillment of the goals of the educational system and to help build the company's strategy in the area of supporting IT education among young people. He also deals with the issue of digital transformation, the topic of upskilling employees, well-being in the hybrid world of work.